

OFFICE OF HUMAN RESOURCES

NEW POSITION AUTHORIZATION REQUEST

A. NEW POSITION AUTHORIZATION PROCESS
POSITIONS COVERED
1. All newly-created positions whether they are submitted as part of the current fiscal year budget, or in addition to the current fiscal year budget that have never been activated or filled. This definition applies to “proposed” or “frozen” positions in PeopleSoft. 2. REQUIRED APPROVALS: A Cabinet Officer, a Finance Designee and a Human Resources designee must approve the position before creating the Electronic Personnel Action Request (ePAR). 3. RECRUITMENT: Once the new position authorization is finalized, position number assigned, and the ePAR is approved, the normal recruitment process will commence.
Please note the following:
A. A verbal or written (formal or informal) job offer must be approved by the Department of Recruitment in the Office of Human Resources prior to any employee working. B. The “FINAL” salary amount offered may be equal to or less than the approved salary on the New Position Approval Request (nPAR), but cannot be greater. If a counteroffer is requested that is greater than the approved salary, an exception must be requested through the Director of Compensation and Performance Management.
